GREENWICH, CONN.

[From sketch by General Humphrey, Washington's aide and Putnam's friend.]

HUNTINGTON: ST. PAUL'S

South view of the Episcopal and Congregational Churches, Huntington.

seen on the right, and the Congregational church, recently erected, is seen on the left.

The first Episcopal church was erected in 1740. 20 years since the Episcopal church, which stood on the foundations of the present building, was burnt down. It was set on fire by a gun, which was discharged at some doves on the building.

Pittsfield St. Michael's

Third Building

(1891-1921)

The following view is rather east of south ; the first building on the left, before which a stage is passing, is the Episcopal, the next the Baptist, the other is the Congregational church, which is the largest of the three. The building in the distance, on the right, has been long known as an excellent tavern, and is the half-way house from Hartford to New Haven, it being seventeen miles from each place.

St. Andrew's Mission

CHAPEL OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, MIDDLETOWN, CONN.

The chapel, a sketch of which accompanies this, is being built in a section of the parish called Pamcacha, largely peopled by Germans. Mr. W. Halsey Wood, of Newark, is the architect, and the total cost of the building will be about $8,000. The chapel will hold 250 people, the school room somewhat over this number.
